

Manchester

By road

Manchester is well-served by the national motorway network. The main motorway routes into the city are:

- from the south – M56
- from the west – M62/M602
- from the north – M61 and M62
- from the east – M62.

Parking

Car parking is available on Windmill Street and Sackville Street.

By rail

Manchester is on the main Intercity routes. From London Euston it takes approximately two and a half hours, arriving at Manchester Piccadilly. Belvedere is a 10 minute taxi journey from the station.

By air

Manchester International Airport is approximately 10 miles south of the city centre. Belvedere is a 30 minute taxi journey from the airport. There is a rail link between the airport and Piccadilly station which runs four trains an hour. The rail journey takes approximately 25 minutes.

