

Reigate

By car

From the M25, exit at Junction 8 and follow signs for Reigate along the A217, which will take you to Reigate Hill. Keep driving for approximately one mile (mostly downhill) and you will reach the level crossing. Drive over the crossing, past Rushworth Road on the left-hand side and look out for the entrance to Watson House, which is also on the left-hand side. Please be aware that motorists may experience delays at peak times when using the Reigate Hill route due to the level crossing safety barriers.

Visitor parking is available at the front of Watson House. Please make your way to the main reception area at the front of the building, where we will arrange for you to be collected by your host.

By rail

There are frequent rail services from Victoria and London Bridge to Redhill, which on average take between 30 to 40 minutes. You will need to change trains at Redhill for your onward journey to Reigate.

Once at Reigate, exit via the ticket barriers and turn right, heading towards the main road. Once you are at the main road, turn left and keep walking for approximately 200 yards: Watson House is on the left-hand side.

Alternatively, you can take a taxi from Redhill Station, which will take approximately 10 to 15 minutes, depending on traffic.
